Student Health and Welfare Committee (From Academic Year 2025 Onwards)

From the academic year 2025 onwards, the Student Health and Welfare Committee is restructured to broaden its scope and strengthen institutional support for student well-being. The committee focuses on holistic wellness, preventive care, and the creation of a student-friendly and safe campus environment.

Committee Members

- Dr. Varsha Bapat – Principal
- Mr. Abhijeet Salunke – Member
- Ms. Harshada Jagtap – Member
- Mrs. Bhupali Bhattu – Member
- Mrs. Swati Patil – Member

Objectives

- To enhance the institutional framework supporting student physical and mental well-being.
- To introduce structured wellness programmes aimed at preventive care and life skills development.
- To ensure timely support and guidance for students facing health or personal challenges.
- To foster a safe, healthy, and inclusive campus environment.

Functions

- Organising structured health and wellness activities including check-up camps, mental health sessions, and fitness initiatives.
- Establishing linkages with hospitals, counsellors, and wellness experts for sustained support.
- Monitoring and responding to student concerns related to safety, hygiene, and well-being.
- Preparing and maintaining documentation for institutional records, IQAC, and accreditation purposes.
- Recommending welfare measures and improvements based on student feedback and performance indicators.
