Student Counselling Cell Committee

Academic Year 2025 - 2026

Introduction

For the academic year 2025–2026, the Student Counselling Cell continues its commitment to nurturing students' mental and emotional well-being. The Cell focuses on proactive counselling, early identification of concerns, and continuous mentoring to help students adapt to academic demands and personal challenges. By strengthening support mechanisms, the Cell aims to enhance student satisfaction, motivation, and holistic development.

Objectives

To offer consistent counselling support for academic, emotional, and social issues.

To encourage healthy communication, self-awareness, and emotional balance among students.

To assist students in overcoming stress, fear, and adjustment issues in college life.

To promote a supportive campus culture that values mental health and well-being.

To guide students towards positive choices and constructive problem-solving.
